INTERTAPE POLYMER GROUP® INTRODUCES NEW GLOW-IN-THE-DARK HALLOWEEN DUCT TAPE DESIGNS

MONTREAL, QUEBEC and BRADENTON, FLORIDA (January 17, 2012) — Intertape Polymer Group ("IPG®", "Intertape" or the "Company"), a leading manufacturer of innovative pressure sensitive tape products, is launching a new line of Firefly™ brand glow-in-the-dark duct tapes for Halloween at the Halloween and Party Expo in Houston, Texas on January 28, 2012. The show features the industry's newest Halloween and party merchandise.

The unique new line of Halloween themed glow-in-the-dark duct tapes, which glow in total darkness after exposure to artificial or natural light, feature original designs named "Creepy Crawlies", "Halloween Haunts", and "Scaredy Cats". The tapes are ideal for crafts, decorating, labels, decals, special effects and hobbies. Also available with the assortment of tapes are customizable retail displays that hold up to 30 rolls. The displays will provide retailers with the opportunity to drive incremental sales and profits in the months leading up to Halloween.

"Retailers have been asking us to give them something new and different in tapes," said Tim Brown, VP of Consumer Sales. "A product people will find useful and fun, a product that will drive incremental sales. Glow-in-the-Dark Technology in duct tape provides that spin that's fun, different and delivers incremental sales."
